PRINTERS

Mr. Borth and his boys should be given a great deal of credit for the neat-looking lay-outs which have been so noticeable in our Bi-Weeklies this year. For their many hours of labor we say, "Thanks a million."

ENGLISH MAGAZINE

This is one publication which does not come under the jurisdiction of the journalism department, but which nevertheless is very worthy of praise. The English classes as a whole made all contributions and the magazine proper was compiled by a committee consisting of Margaret Hoare, Dorothy Milton, Ernest Anderson, and Jerry Maggid.

I. DEPARTMENT HEADS

HELEN E. PASSMORE
Editor-in-Chief

II. SENIORS

Pauline Zimmer, assisted by Joyce Westlund and Anna Marie Deisenroth, directed the taking of senior pictures and brought to light the accomplishments of each senior.

III. PHOTOGRAPHY

IV. CIRCULATION

Standing: Bob Edwards, Betty Greenleaf.

Each of the above met the quota set by Zeivel Harris, except Theresa Weigand, who transferred her abilities to typing. These people worked successfully and the annuals sold mounted beyond 700.

ART

All credit should be given to Bill Mowry, Miriam Maxwell, and other members of the art department, who under the guidance of Miss McElhinney took full responsibility for the introductory and advertising sections.

JOHN CRONAU
Business Manager

MISS RUTH BLANCHARD
Journalism Adviser

V. FEATURES

The above people delved many times into their creative resources to develop new ideas. Do you like them? Ruth Witt was needed for typing, so she helped in that department.

VI. SPORTS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Jean Krick and Jane Schindler (seated), David Terry, sports.

VII. ADVERTISING

A completely new policy, including a questionnaire, a new process of printing photographs and cartoons, was adopted this year by the advertising staff. A high quota was set and only Mildred Marcus, Mildred Smith, Virginia Penniston (not shown here), John Bonino, and Louie Pesses met the requirements.

Mildred Sellers and Helen Bealer made a fine showing as sophomore workers.

Commendable work was done by Mildred Marcus, advertising manager, and Leota Mae Harris, who composed and tabulated the questionnaire.

MISS SARA McELHINNEY
Art Adviser

WATCH TOWER BI-WEEKLY

DOROTHY BOYD
Editor-in-Chief
First Semester

The WATCH TOWER staffs this year have inaugurated several journalistic changes. During the fall semester, the Bi-Weekly column was changed to standard newspaper width, page editors were appointed, and the editorial page was revised. The publication became a member of the National Scholastic Press Association and three delegates were sent to the national convention in Des Moines. The paper was submitted to the N. S. P. A. Critical Service.

The Quill and Scroll Society accepted June Barker, Dorothy Boyd, Jo Crane and Albert Lindsay as charter members.

The positions of editor-in-chief and managing editor were filled by Dorothy Boyd, Jerome Maggid and Mildred Smith.

Other members of the staff included: business manager, Leslie Horwitz; news editor, Opal Jarrett; make-up editors, Albert Lindsay and Carl Welch; sports, Herman Carp; girls' sports and society, June Barker; feature editor, Sylvia Halpern; reporters, Clara Barton, Thomas Lawson, Howard Schersten, Evelyn Wolfe, Keith Prescott, Don Burke. The business staff included advertising manager, Bob Chandler; circulation manager, Jo Crane; assistant circulation manager, Bob Wonio. Marcella Huntley and Natalie Otto were typists.

During the spring semester, another advanced journalism class displayed its competence. The flag was made in lower case, white space reduced, and a new column by John Corporon introduced on the front page.

The staff which issued this series of bi-weeklies was headed by Geraldine Faigen and completed with John Corporon, Kathleen Budelier, Clayton Johnston, Helene Lippens, page editors; Marvyl Leonhardi, managing editor; Lila Fields, copy and proof editor; Eugene Dasso, make-up; Helen Sears, city news; Louis Pesses, business manager; Minard Baker, advertising manager; Margery Walker, circulation manager; extra page editors, Virginia Penniston and Harry Green; exchanges, Norman Kelinson; assistant page editors, Norma Davis and Marylyn Baird; reporters and typists, Ruby Peterson and Hazel De Loose.

Miss Ruth Blanchard, journalism teacher, and David J. Borth, printing instructor, served as advisers.

GERALDINE FAIGEN

WE HONOR YOU

Introducing . . . the leaders of the school. First let me introduce to you Shirley Hallgren. What a busy little lady she's been, pounding the gavel for Girls' Hi-Y, taking leading roles in many plays, and trilling gaily in the Glee Club. She has rightfully earned her title of "the most popular girl in school." The good-looking boy with her is none other than Frank Forward, president of the Boys' Hi-Y.

The two midgets are Miriam (Minnie) Maxwell and Pauline Zimmer. Miriam is chief of the Blackhawk Tribe and does a nice job of handling those (wild) Indians. She ejected her pleasing personality on the stage several times and scored heavily. Any organization that wants things calls on Pauline Zimmer. The journalism department, Girls' Hi-Y, Dramatic Club, and others are grateful for her help.

John Bonino's middle name is "president." He was elected president of the Junior class last year and the Senior class this year. He calls the meeting to order for the Dramatic Club and as a business manager for plays he's tops.

Helen Passmore is an important person in the journalism department. Last year she was editor of the Bi-Weekly and this year she heads the annual staff. She also hits a high "C" in the Glee Club.

Over in the corner are Jerry Maggid, Leota Mae Harris, and Dick Langhinrichs. These three people have distinguished themselves in many fields, especially forensics. Besides being Northwest Representative in Oratory, Jerry has been active in the music and journalism departments. Leota Mae is one of the few to have two first-place medals in the Northwest Declamation Conference. She was editor of the Bi-Weekly last year and associate editor of the annual this year. Her "Granny Painsberry" won acting honors and since then she has successfully emoted many times. Dick Langhinrichs has had important roles in many plays and was successful in oratory and debate for three years. This year he is captain of the negative team. He is to be commended also for his work in the Glee Club.

Dick Hainline, president of the Senate and champion tennis player, was voted the most popular boy in school. His performances on the stage have caused many girls' hearts to beat faster. The lovable Marge Chaney is pictured with him. Marge was vice-president of the Girls' Hi-Y last year and is secretary of the Senate.

David (Scotty) Terry and Ellen Spinsby have played opposite each other on the stage and did it so successfully that they continued it off the stage too. Ellen is on the declamation team, and lends a helping hand to any organization that needs it. Scotty gave outstanding portrayals in "The Vagabond" and "Death Takes a Holiday." He also struts his stuff during track season.

Fal Wood and Dorothy Howe head the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. They handled these important positions very capably.

Jean Krick and Barbara Fry are two girls who deserve a big hand. Jean has been behind the scenes for many a dramatic production, helping Miss Pete. She rates high in the Glee Club and—she is the Valedictorian of the school. Take a bow, Jean! Much of the credit for the musical successes of our school goes to Barbara Fry, who accompanies the Glee Club. Her flying fingers add a great deal to any performance.

These are the people who have set precedents for future classes of our school. Lofty, leading seniors . . . We Honor You.

FAREWELL, DEAR SENIORS

Oh, seniors, now we see you go
Step by step and row by row.
The charming Marge Chaney and her court,
How we will miss you and your sort!
Then next the highstepping Harber Hall
Who likes the "Big apple" much to call.
O'boy, that Zimmer, see her go!
Down to the library to study? Oh, no!
And then Dave Terry of the golden locks,
It's Ellen Spinsby for him who's tops.
Then Barbara Fry and her tripping fingers
And the great Fal Wood who around her lingers.
Frank Forward for Jean Krick does go,
But so did "Howie" Franck, we know.
Then beautiful Shirley with glorious acting,
And Byron Swedberg whom she's been attracting.
The blond Tom Trafton on fact is feeding;
He will not pause till his brains are leading.
Ted Ague's voice rings mellow and blue;
To Dorothy Howe we thought he was true.
Now sweet little Leota with freckles galore,
But David Handelman doesn't care if there's more.
Stanford Barker with his beautiful voice
From blondes especially makes his choice.
Sam and Miriam of the Hi-De Ho,
When they get together, just watch them go!
Jerry Maggid and his violin
The hearts of people and nations will win.
Helen Passmore, she of the hustling air,
Claims to ignore the boys, an attitude rare.
Good-bye to you, we'll miss you much.
Farewell, toodle-oo, and more of such.
To all the seniors we say "Godspeed"
And hope to be proud of the lives you lead.

NORTHWEST REPRESENTATIVES

Our contestants in Northwest Conference competition were as follows: Leota Mae Harris, Declamation; Jerry Maggid, Oratory; Dick Langhinrichs, Extempore; and Mildred McKay, Stenography.

Leota Mae tied for first place, giving her selection, "A Minuet," by Louis N. Parker. The contest was held in our auditorium and there was some very stiff competition for our own very versatile Miss Harris, but in spite of this she came out on top even with Dawn Vermuelen of Moline.

Another tie was present in the Northwest Extempore contest held in Galesburg on April 19. Dick tied for top ranking with Bob Eagle of Moline. His topic was "United States Naval Policy." An interesting thing about this contest was the fact that our representative would have had an undisputed first had he not been penalized one point for speaking five seconds overtime.

Jerry Maggid, who was R. I. representative in the Northwest Oratory contest, came home with a silver medal, signifying that he had captured second place in this forensic activity.

Our stenographic contestant who was chosen for Northwest competition was Mildred McKay. She came out with fourth individual place in the meet held in Monmouth on April 9.

GIRLS' DECLAMATION

"There's a little green gate at whose trellis I wait" . . . "Hello, this is Slon-skys'." . . . "Up from the hedge there rose a host of golden butterflies." . . . Such were the phrases quoted by the girls on the declamation team when they again had a gold star added to their history. Capturing second place in the triangular contest between Moline and East Moline, they climaxed their season by tying for first place in the Northwest Conference. Leota Mae Harris, as their representative, magnificently interpreted "The Minuet."

The girls and their selections are as follows: Ellen Spinsby, "Yellow Butterflies." Juanita Potter, "Smilin' Through." Leota Mae Harris, "The Minuet." Lucille Brotman, "The Violin Maker." Betty Greenleaf, "The Florist Shop." Shirley Hallgren, "Sing Me to Sleep."

DEBATE

The debate squad had another successful year, winning 20 out of 34 debates. Under the two capable captains Margaret Ford, affirmative, and Dick Langhinrichs, negative, the team captured third place in the Northwest Conference. The other meet was held at Augustana College and they won high honors there also. The subject was, "Resolved, that the several states shall adopt a unicameral system of legislation." The squad is coached by P. J. Martin.

BOYS' ORATORY

A feather in their cap was given to the boys' oratory team when they won first place in the triangular meet between Moline and East Moline. Three of the boys who went to Moline took first, second and third place, respectively, and the three who orated at Rock Island also captured first, second and third.

Jerome Maggid, as Northwest representative, came home with honors, as he won second place in the Northwest Conference.

Since variety is the spice of life, the team spoke on everything from history-making to automobile accidents.

The team and their orations are as follows: Jerome Maggid, "The Monster in the Public Square." James Haymaker, "Bloody Altars." Scotty Terry, "Youth Speaks." Carl Welch, "Jean Valjean." Dick Langhinrichs, "The Crisis in Character," Dick Hainline, "Convict 9653."

EXTEMP

"Success" was the keynote of the extemp team this year, and success it was. Within the span of two weeks the team began and finished with the results being very satisfactory.

Rock Island took first place in the contests with Moline and Galesburg, and the grand finale of the season was scored when Richard Langhinrichs, as our representative, took first in the Northwest Conference.

Louis Pesses and Lucille Brotman also received honors, Louis tying for third place at Galesburg, and Lucille taking third place at Moline. Others who gave a good showing were Justin Rinehart and Dorothy Zimmer.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Your Uncle Dudley," a light comedy filled with rollicking humor, was presented by the junior class, March 11.

Uncle Dudley, a bachelor, who was called upon for both devotion of time and financial assistance for various civic activities, was very ably portrayed by Carl "William" Welch. His interest in the fairer sex proved to be Margaret Ford, playing the part of Christine Sederholm. The Church family, to whom "Dudley" is related, consists of Dorothy Boyd as Mabel Church, the dominating mother; Juanita Potter as Ethelyn, her talented daughter; and Bill Johnson as Cyril, her teen-age son. We mustn't forget the fine characterization of Janet Dixon, the grandmother, played by Janet Swanson. Helping to sum up a well-picked cast are David Sturgis, man-about-town, Charlie Post, and Justin Reinhart, who supplied the romantic interest of the story by portraying Robert Kirby.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The successful play "Smilin' Through," given by the senior class of 1930, still proved to be a favorite when the 1938 senior class presented it May 6.

The lilting strains of the melody "Smilin' Through," the lovely costumes and a beautiful garden setting provided a pleasing atmosphere, which will not soon be forgotten.

Those who very capably portrayed the characters were: Shirley Hallgren, known for her fine performances in several other prominent plays, now claiming the part of lovely Moonyeen Clare; talented Dick Langhinrichs, portraying the character John Carteret, Moonyeen's fiance; and Howard Franck, noted for his splendid character roles, all featured players. David "Scotty" Terry, very ably handling a double role, that of Jeremiah Wayne, the father, and Kenneth Wayne, the son, displayed more of his fine dramatic ability, as did Miriam Maxwell, his spirited Kathleen.

The good supporting cast who helped the play "on to success" were:

Sarah Wayne—Anna Marie Deisenroth

May Clare—Ellen Spinsby

Ellen—Carolyn Joneson

Willie Ainley—Mickey Capman

Wedding Guests:

Barbara Fry, Jean Krick, Phyllis Ed, Jerome Maggid, James Haymaker, Fal Wood

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

The romantic mystery, "Death Takes a Holiday," sent shivers down the spines of about 1500 persons who attended this year's Dramatic Club play on December 10.

The scene was laid in the great hall belonging to Duke Lambert, who was none other than Dick Langhinrichs, a prominent figure in all phases of speech work in high school. "Scotty" Terry in the role of Death on a three-day holiday came as the mortal, His Serene Highness Prince Sirke of Vitalba Alexandra, to the castle to taste of life and love and find out why men feared him. There he found the perfect love, unafraid and eternal in Grazia, the role taken by Shirley Hallgren.

Interpreted by "Howie" Frank was the philosophical humor of the venerable Baron Cesarea. Leota Mae Harris as Duchess Stephanie and Margaret Ford as Princess of San Luca portrayed strong supporting roles. Jim Haymaker was the dashing, impulsive Corrado, and Bud Vogt took the part of Major Whitread, veteran of "Zero" hours in the front line trenches of battle.

The lighting effects for the nocturnal visit of the black-robed, pallid-faced Death as he forced the deal with Duke Lambert (Dick Langhinrichs) for his three-day sojourn in the latter's castle caused many in the audience to shudder and grasp their watching companions.

Others in the cast were Ellen Spinsby, Miriam Maxwell, Mary Lee Szekely, David Handleman, and Dick Hainline.

SPEECH CLASS PLAYS

As a feature of the end of the first semester the advanced speech classes presented in the auditorium on January 26 four one-act plays, including three comedies and one heavy drama.

Between plays a "Novelty Quintet" composed of Marylyn Baird, Nina Plantz, Phyllis Ed, Betty Mead and Juanita Potter presented song and dance numbers.

Favorite of the audience was the "One Word Play," starring Dick Hainline and Miriam Maxwell. The two comedies, "Teapot on the Rocks" with Carolyn Joneson, Helen Lippens, Trond Brekke, Isador Arshack, Norman Kelson, and Arlene Taylor, and "The Flattering Word" with Helen Souders, Howard Hiller, Geraldine Faigen, Norma Davis, and Howard Franck, were also well received. Adding variety to the program was "The Brink of Silence" with its heavy plot. The cast included Carl Welch, Sam Lane, Robert Dasso, Bob Froude.

All members of the advanced speech classes took part in the performance either as ushers, on technical committees, or actors.

GLEE CLUBS PRESENT LIGHT OPERA "THE MARRIAGE OF NANNETTE"

In place of the Operetta of previous years the Glee Clubs have this year introduced into their curriculum the production of a Light Opera, "The Marriage of Nannette" by Louis W. Curtis.

Although it was a huge undertaking, the Glee Clubs carried it off with their usual finesse and success. Under the direction of William G. Rozeboom the cast and chorus presented some of the loveliest music ever to have been given by this organization.

The story takes place in 17th century France, and the setting was exceedingly beautiful, the new backdrop being used to good advantage. It is all centered in the courtyard of an old inn, with a pleasing conglomeration of Virginia Seller's sweet trills, Ted Ague's heart-warming tones, Howie Francks' splendid characterizing, Dick Langhinrich's and Jerry Maggid's downright hilarity, and all of the pleasantries offered by the remainder of the cast, including Margaret Ford, Clifford Myers, Jean Krick, Fal Wood, Helen Passmore, Margaret Hoare, Buster Anderson, Clifford Vogt, David Handelman, Justin Reinhart, Betty Mead, Mary Lee Szekely, and Donald Davis.

In addition to the fine vocal music which was a feature of this performance, there was an orchestra of finer caliber than those of former years. This was due to the fact that many of its members were recruited from outside sources.

A great deal of credit for the success of the light opera should be given to Miss Virginia Bode, girls' gym instructor, and Mr. P. J. Martin, forensics coach, for their conscientious and valuable assistance. Mr. Martin was in charge of dramatics, and Miss Bode was in charge of dances and stage movements.

Dorothy Howe and Fal Wood, presidents of the boys and girls glee clubs, respectively, were student directors for the production.

BAND

New and spectacular marching formations have helped the Rock Island High School Band bring to a close one of its most successful years. No doubt, the outstanding event of the season was the Northwest District Contest which was held in Rock Island, March 25 and 26, at which Rock Island won high honors, first in the main contest and second in sight reading. Also the annual fall and spring concerts won the praise of the community.

TRIO

On this page we find the girls of Rock Island High School in predominance. In the top picture is a group which has been very active in music circles of our school this year, the girls' trio, composed of Margaret Ford, Jean Krick, and Helen Passmore. Their programs have been numerous and varied, since they were sent to many places where it would have been impossible to take the larger groups of the Glee Clubs.

This is the first year that this department of the Glee Club has really had an active part in the music curriculum. Their work has been so successful that it is believed that next year will find a continuance of this same plan with girls taking the places of Jean and Helen, the graduating seniors.

STENOGRAPHIC TEAM

These girls worked many long hours to prepare themselves as a team for entrance in Northwest Stenographic competition. Under the capable guiding hand of Miss Carrie Eckblad these girls typed themselves into second place in the contest held in Monmouth on Saturday, April 9.

The girls on our team who worked to gain points for us in our Northwest Conference were Mildred McKay, our Northwest Conference representative, Goldie Blitz, and Gertrude Bloom, with Betty Laverdar as alternate.

TOURNAMENT

By winning six straight games in the regional and sectional tourneys, the Rock Island cage squad earned its way into the state finals held at Champaign. This was the first time in twenty odd years that a Rock Island team has gone to the finals.

During the regular season the Islanders fell victims to Galesburg twice. Then when the pairings were made for the state finals it was found that Rock Island was again to meet the Silver Streaks.

Rock Island trailed at the end of the first quarter 3-2 but they came back in the second stanza to deadlock the score 7-7 at halftime. The Crimson went on a brief scoring spree in the third quarter and outscored Galesburg nine points to seven and led 16-14, going into the fourth quarter. The Siwash turned on the heat, though, in the last period and eked out a 23-21 victory.

TRACK

Since the track season this year was in progress past the date of our deadline, it was impossible to include a full set of writeups or pictures. These shots are, therefore, indicative of the work done by our track team this spring. Pole vault, dashes, and discus.

SEASON

Under the guidance of our three new coaches, W. E. Scantlebury, W. Bailey, and L. Glick, our team set a new high in spirit and fighting ability. While hampered by lack of experienced men, weight and speed, the '37 squad did admirably. Led by Honorary Captain Blasig, the eleven fought until the last whistle and were never conquered in spirit.

Although losing eight seniors, Captain Blasig, Mickey Capman, Dick Crist, Carroll Cross, Lionel Murray, Dick Paul, Bob Nelson, and Arnold Lindberg, by graduation, next year's team promises to be a potential champion and with the whole-hearted support and backing of the town personnel, as well as the student body, Coach "Scan" will produce a winner.

Setting an object to which future players may aspire, Phil Blasig, honorary captain, and end on the team, presented a trophy to the school. This trophy is to be awarded each year to the outstanding defense player of the season. Judges will be the coaching staff. This will be known as the R. I. Blasig award.

So let us give a toast to the future champions of the state, the first to be the Crimson and Gold squad of 1938!

VARSITY

BASKETBALL

Climaxing a season of ups and downs, the team went forth to win the sectional from East Moline and the regional from Fulton. Inspired by the splendid support and co-operation of the town's people, the squad played a brand of ball far superior to any seen before. Winning the regional tournament for the first time in twenty years, our boys started a custom which we can always observe—go to state.

Losing practically the entire team by graduation, Coach Scan will well find it pretty hard to build up a team next year. However, since Scan formed a miracle team around only one veteran player, he probably will produce winners in next year's competition.

SOPHOMORES

During the regular season our team won 6 and lost 10 for a percentage of .375. They made up for this in the tournament warfare. Led by Don Tufts, the team conquered Reynolds, Orion, East Moline and at the sectional, Viola, Galva, and Fulton, in the order named. At the finals at Champaign we lost in the first round to Galesburg by a score of 23-21.

High honors go to Don Tufts who led the team in scoring and was placed on the Honorary All-State Second Team.

Also Arnie Lindberg, as the Spark-plug of the outfit, Big Stretch Schneider who controlled the bankboards, and the steady play of Deneckere.

The government of our school is in the hands of the Senate, an organization composed of a representative from each senate room, club, special department, and athletic team.

For the first time this year, on December 10, officers of our Senate participated in a Student Conference in Davenport, at which representatives from six high schools in this locality met to discuss ways of improving school government.

This year the Senate was responsible for the highly successful "Basket ball" and the 4C campaign.

With "Contentment" as this year's theme, the Girls' Hi-Y carried out many and varied activities in its program. Among these were the selling of forget-me-nots in the fall for the disabled war veterans; the annual Christmas party at the Y. W. C. A. for the Bethany Home children; and in the spring the sale of poppies.

At its meetings held every other Wednesday, several attractive and interesting features were introduced: an Irish Shindig on March 16, a book review of the "House of Exile," a talk on Hollywood by Miss Garst, and several talks on foreign countries.

The year was climaxed by the senior farewell and ring ceremony.

The Boys' Hi-Y is the boys' service organization of the high school. The club is managed interchangeably by the high school and the Y. M. C. A. authorities and its work is spread over each of these fields. It meets semimonthly at the Y. M. C. A., alternating evening meetings with potluck suppers. This year the club had several activities starting soon after school began in September. Among these were: ushering at the dedication programs, Older Boys' Conference at Elgin, Christmas stag, matinee dance, April Fool's dance, Fellowship banquet, and the end of school picnic. These activities were all successful, and the Hi-Y feels that its first year at the new school was well spent.

The sponsors of the Hi-Y are: Mr. Metcalf, Mr. Peoples, Mr. Huckins, and Mr. Burch.

CAMERA CLUB

The purpose of this organization is to develop interest in and increase the ability of the members in photography both as an absorbing hobby and as a profession.

Each member has actual experience in the composing, exposing, developing, printing, enlarging, and tinting of pictures. The equipment, which the club is purchasing and building, has endless possibilities and any school should be proud to own it.

Many of the pictures in this annual were taken by members of this club. The Camera Club of Rock Island Senior High School is an informational, instructional, and service organization to both the members and the school.

Keeper of Birchbark and Wampum.....BETTY GREENLEAF

The Black Hawk Tribe is an organization made up of social science students who hold their meetings once every two weeks for the chief purpose of studying the history of Illinois and Rock Island.

The "Braves" and "Squaws" also have their social activities. Two big pow-wows were held this year: a Christmas initiation party (you should have seen those "Indians" in their warpaint) and a spring picnic.

The Tribe also sponsored the concession stand at the football games and the popularity contest. A number of smaller activities took place, which concluded a successful "moon."

Sponsors: Misses Eva Irvine, Alverda Doxey, Florence Liebbe, and Messrs. Shantz, Martin, and Metcalf.

ROCK ISLAND HIGH SCHOOL MARCHES ON!

Gee! Senior assembly. It can not was. Seems only yesterday we yelled ourselves hoarse for good, old Rocky High. (Even dimmed the lights, once!)

Come to think of it, we had just loads of "swell" assembly programs this year. The Browne and Menely entertainers surely could tickle the ivories. Then, when various organizations were represented, we even let the little sophies declare themselves in the form of the president of Alpha Club. Oh, and we can't forget Mr. Harry C. White, who gave an electrical demonstration on October 25, proving to the unbelieving sophies, (seniors as well, though we wouldn't admit it) that black is white. Hm, we seniors knew it all the time. But everyone, seniors included, was on the edge of his seat when Mr. White nonchalantly tossed a 1,000 watt bulb up in the air, and (thank heavens!) caught it. He smilingly explained to us that there was enough explosive in it to blow up the whole school. A new school, too!

We have to hand it to Professor William G. Rozeboom for directing our wonderful choir in the assembly November 19th.

E-e-e-o-o-w-w! A blood-curdling scream rent the air, a crash, a shot, and the Hanscum players reached the climax of their thrilling murder-mystery which sent cold shivers up and down our spines.

Remember the darling coeds from Drake University? It seems all the boys were intent upon going to Drake University after that assembly. I don't blame them. I sorta' been considerin' it myself, if their male quartet are examples of their college lads.

The Frank and Hammond team struck the student body's fancy, too, it seems, with their variety of musical selections. More than one student walked out of honor awards assembly, beaming, and proud to possess a letter of Rock Island high school. Every one of them deserved it too. We salute you, boys.

"The worst fall of all, is when you fall in love," stated Dr. Tischner of Chicago, who enlightened many a student on the perplexing problems of love and friendship between high school boys and girls, January 31. Blessed with a fine sense of humor, her talk made a hit with student body and faculty, alike. The highlight of the year was the amateur show put over in fine style by a prominent member of our faculty, Mr. "Pete." (Mr. Peterson to you Sophies). Phil Blasig, as a black-faced comedian, Linda Sullivan, song-bird of the south, and our very competent Dick Hainline as master of ceremonies deserved high honors, along with every act accompanied by some swing music by the boys in the orchestra. The star dramatic club play, "Pearls," was presented March 4 and we expect talent scouts from Hollywood to pounce on these stars any day now demanding that they sign on the dotted line. We've been all over Europe and Alaska via films too.

Tizzie Lisch, in the person of Harber Hall had us rolling in the aisles in the advertising program for the annual. The four C's campaign came through with flying banners, making for a better high school and student body. Chrysanthemums to Mr. Wright, our principal, who arranged all these fine assemblies. Hardly seems possible they're all over with. Since all good things must end, we leave the splendid forthcoming assemblies to our up-and-coming juniors and sophomores, and, with tears in our eyes, leave you to carry on. Rock Island High School Marches On!

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Junior-Senior Prom is an important event and everyone eagerly anticipates this glorious occasion. No one ever looked forward to it more than the junior and senior classes of this year. John Bonino's orchestra furnished the swing music for all us swingsters to truck on November 9. The cafeteria was decorated in red and green.

After dancing a while we all gathered 'round for the program. Those entertaining were Bette Mean, Billy and Mary Bysinger, and Linda Sullivan. Combined, they put on a very good show. After more swinging and the usual hub-bub-hurrah! guess what! refreshments!!! Make way, folks—popcorn, soda and candied apples (mine contained a woim!) But all together, we had a cute time.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

I'm not going to start out by razzing the sophomores about these late hours, because aren't they entitled to a good time just as much as the seniors? In fact, from my own observation, I see they can "take it" better than their upperclass friends.

Their party was November 5, in the cafeteria. John Bonino's rhythm boys played (and Rome was cool as a cucumber). They enjoyed a program presented by several entertainers who put on a good show. Refreshments were served and they went home, maybe tired but surely happy.

THE BASKET "BALL"

The members of the decorating committee for the Basket "Ball" stepped back, moist of brow and dry of tongue, to view their work of art. When it passed approval, they had just time to dash home and get prettied up to come all smiling and beaming with their escorts. The decorations, symbolic of baskets with balloons for balls, were the prettiest we've had for a long time.

This dance was given after our first basketball game, which was with Decatur, and by the way, we won. The orchestra, Kenny Perman's, supplied the music (and what music!)

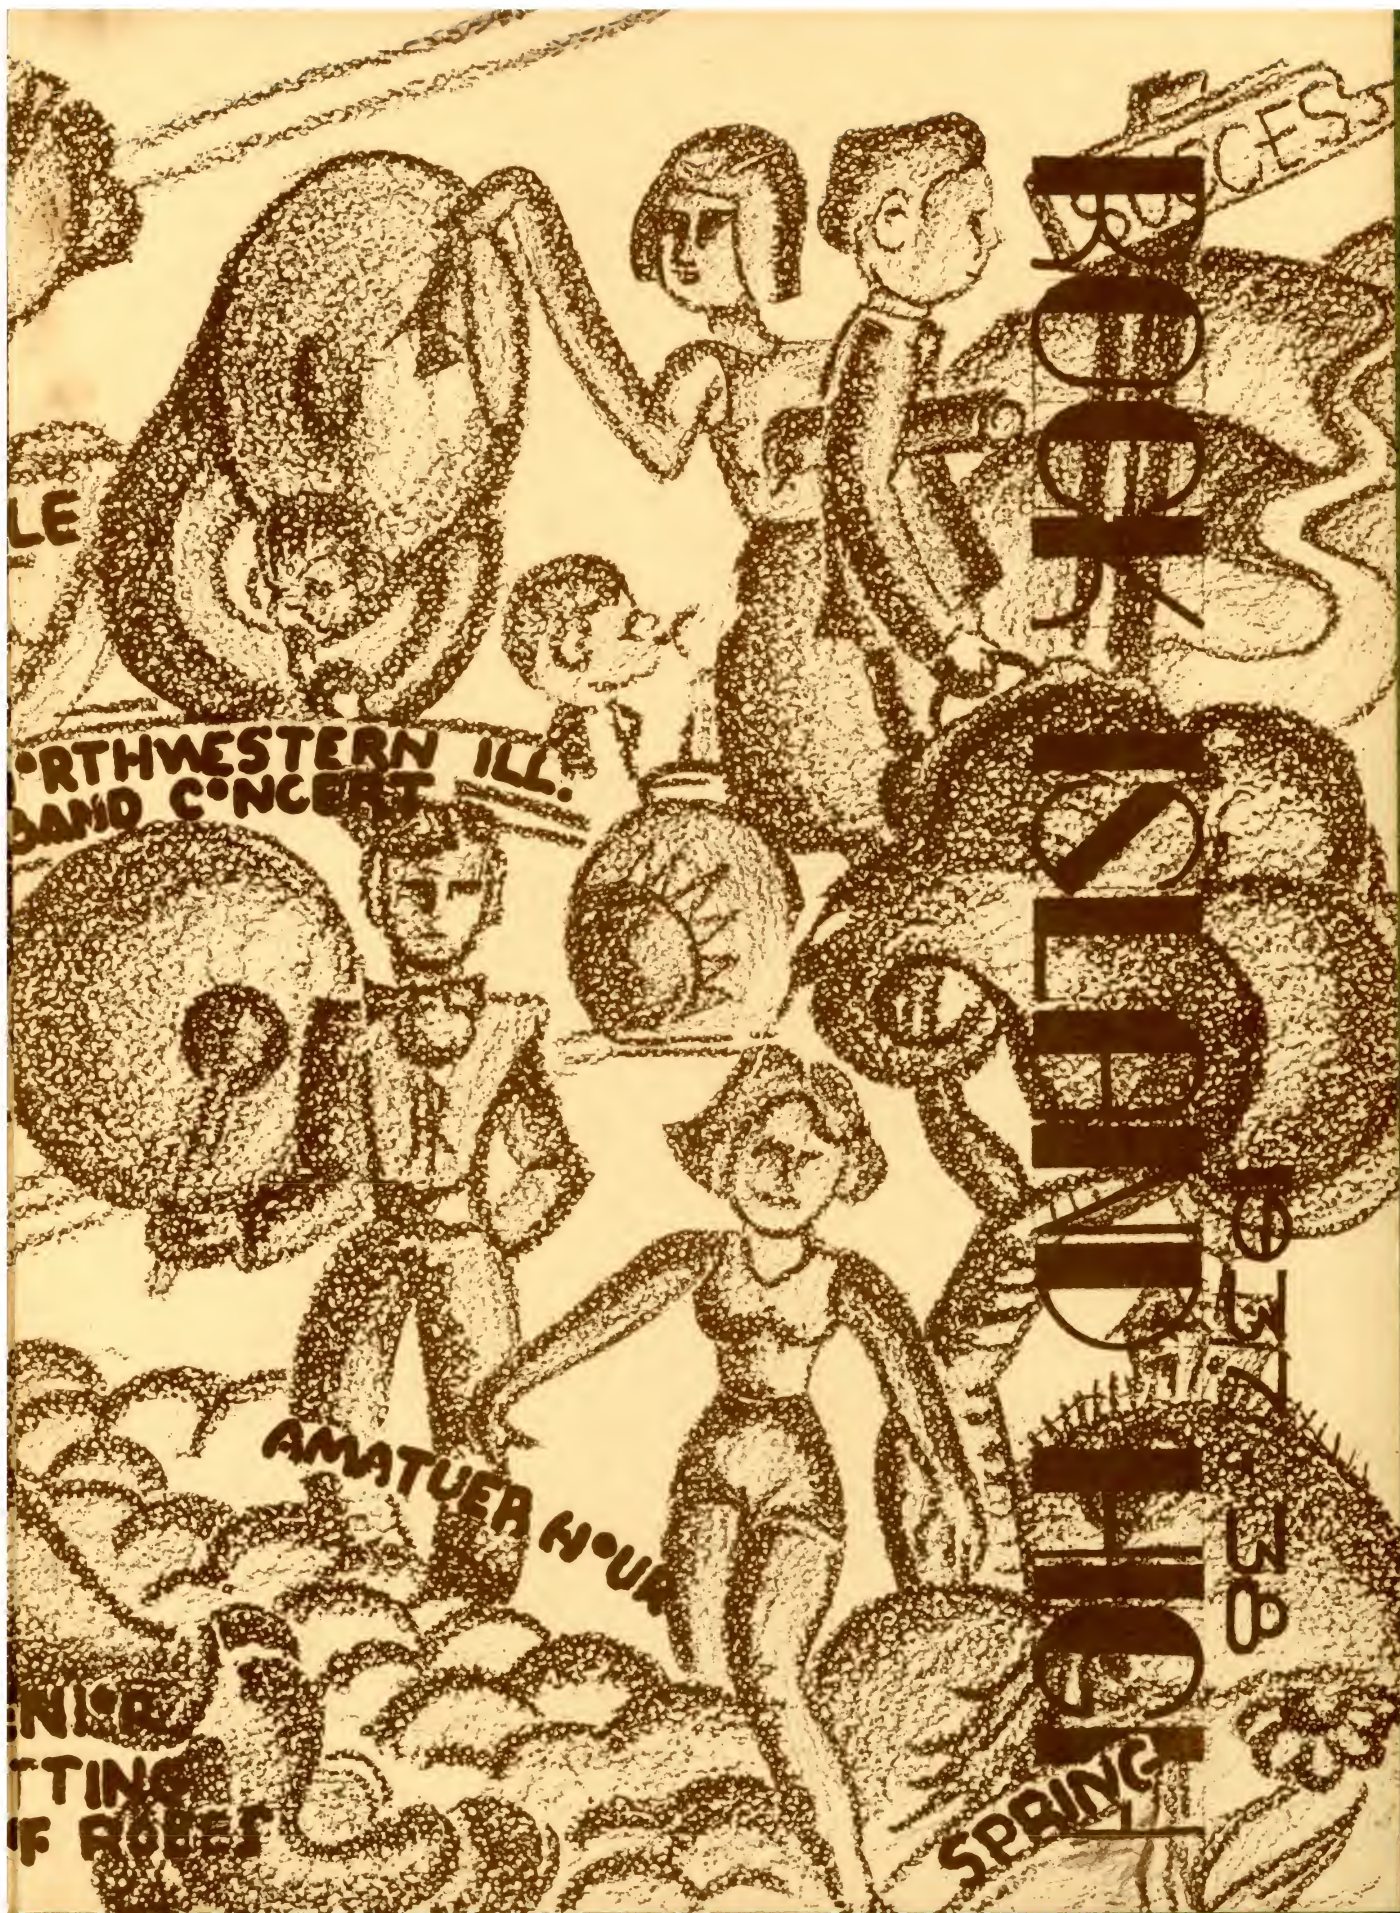

It was really colossal! Ask anyone who was lucky enough to be there. Then, Miriam Maxwell, Chief of Black Hawk Tribe, announced the winners of the popularity contest, Shirley Hallgren and Dick Hainline. Congratulations, Shirley and Dick. Then after something to eat (purely human nature) the celebraters went home to eat some more before retiring.
